

Final Report

September 2005 – December 2008

Development of Regional Upland Training Programs for the GMS: A system approach in linking Upland and Lowland in China, Lao PDR, Thailand, Cambodia, and Vietnam

Submitted

TO:
The Rockefeller Foundation

by:
Multiple Cropping Center and
Faculty of Agriculture, Chiang Mai University

(March 2008)

Table of Content

Summary	1
Aim and Objectives	3
Background	5
Activities and Methodology	7
Site Visits
Planning workshop
1 st Workshop: Agricultural Marketing
2 nd Workshop: Community-based Natural Resources Management
3 rd Workshop: Decision support tools
Conclusion workshops
Conclusion/Next Steps	13
Lessons Learned	17
Network Participants	19
Appendices
1: Cambodia Case	21
2: Laos PDR case	27
3: Thai case	37
4: Vietnam case	41

ACRONYMS AND ABBREVIATIONS

CMU	Chiang Mai University, Chiang Mai, Thailand
GMS	Greater Mekong Subregion
HUAF	Hue University of Agriculture and Forestry, Hue, Vietnam
MCC	The Multiple Cropping Center, Chiang Mai, Thailand
PAFO	Provincial Agriculture and Forestry Office, Luong Prabang, Laos
PDR
RF	Rockefeller Foundation
RUA	Royal University of Agriculture, Phnom Penh, Cambodia
UA	Upland Agriculture
UAC	Upland Agriculture Curriculum
UAN	Upland Agriculture Network
WG	Working Group

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Network of Educators and Researchers of Upland Agriculture in GMS has been built on a tradition of philanthropy and generous support from the Rockefeller Foundation, Southeast Asia Office in Bangkok, Thailand.

Thanks to you, we have established Network, relationships, learning environment, and future plans. Our outstanding upland agriculture teaching and research programs will benefit and inspire the entire GMS community.